1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: U.S.P. 5,595,955 to Chang et al. represents the closest prior art. Documents are given a coating of thermochromic material on the backside. This coating can receive additional impact printing. Chang et al. fail to teach or suggest 1) a thermosensitive coating on the front of the document and 2) non-impact printing over the thermochromic material as recited in applicants' claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The following is an examiner's amendment: In the preliminary amendment to page 1 of the specification after "2001" , -- , now U.S.P. 6,803,344 -- has been inserted.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bruce Hess", with a stylized flourish at the end.
